Organization Briefing	KOE is committed to establishing a bridge between China and Japan in the environmental sector through assisting the environmental investment institutions from Japan in finding suitable projects in China through KOE's wide networking with the business, industry and government. At the same time, KOE assists Chinese business and other organization in identifying and finding foreign financing source in the environmental business sector. At present, our main operation is to bring the notion <Clean Development Mechanism> (CDM for short) which is mentioned in the first global agreement of project level coordination < Kyoto Protocol > to China, and help the promising owner to make use of CDM well, so that we can encourage people to use more advanced saving-energy, clean energy and renewable energy which are good to Sustainable Development, reduce the emission of green gas. KOE's main affair in CDM project: (1) Provide CDM consulting and service for project owner; (2) All project design document writing; (3) Assist seeking CER buyer and participate in the CER-purchasing negotiation; (4) Assist project owner in handing document to National Coordination committee for approving. (5) Assist the third organization in auditing; (6) Assist buyer in approving; (7) Assist and instruct in monitoring; (8) Provide a general CDM training for project owner's company to improve their ability in CDM monitoring and actualizing. KOE's advantages: (1) Entrepreneur set foot in the Japanese Environmental Business, especial in CDM field at very early time, so she knows the application of CDM and the CER of Green House Gas very well. At the same time, she has got a great support of concern government and leader in these years; (2) We have a strong technology staff team, so we can get all the information together in time and promote the development of CDM project and Sustainable Development of China; (3) We have established long-term cooperative relations with famous consulting company, electric power company in the field of CDM and environmental business consulting in China. (4) We are also familiar with the information and operation rules of Europe buyer, and have established fine cooperative relations with them.
